Sunday Mass is offered in memory of Richard J. Prince, for whom the Prince Athletic Complex was named.

Richard was born on April 8, 1929. Despite his strong will to live, he passed away on August 31, 2016, after battling multiple health issues.

Richard is survived by his loving wife of 66 years, Christine (Mastrella) Prince, 6 children, and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He is missed every day.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace.
Amen.

Newman Notes

Each time we celebrate Mass you hear in the Prayers of the Faithful that we are "praying for those who have died, especially [name] who is remembered at this Mass." Someone, usually a family member or friend, has asked for Mass to be said for this person. When a priest celebrates Mass, he offers the Sacrifice of the Mass for a particular person, or intention. When he does this, special graces from God are applied upon that person or intention. This act of offering prayers for the dead at Mass goes back to AD 235. Canon Law talks of this practice and says, "In accord with the approved practice of the Church, any priest celebrating, or concelebrating is permitted to receive an offering to apply the Mass for a specific intention" (Can. 945 §1). This is one of the ways that we can pray for those who have died and assist them on their way to heaven.

Canon Law also states, "The Christian faithful who give an offering to apply the Mass for their intention contribute to the good of the Church and by that offering share its concern to support its ministers and works" (945 §2). This refers to a longstanding practice in the Church of offering a specified amount of money to the Church for a particular intention offered by the priest. This is not the act of selling something sacred for money (simony), but it is for the purpose of supplying items for Mass and for the support of the priest. In the Dioceses of Rochester, the standard offering or donation for a Mass stipend is $10. Here at UR Newman many of our intentions are from neighboring parishes who have a lot of Mass requests but don't have enough Masses to fulfill all those requests. If you would like a Mass said for your intention, please email Jen at jhugh25@ur.rochester.edu and she will set it up for you. If you do not have the offering, we would still like to pray for your intention!
