Changing Lives, One Person at a Time!

Dear Catholic Jackets,

As we come to the end of another remarkable year, I am filled with gratitude and awe for all that we have achieved together. It is with immense joy that I reflect on the past year, marking my 23rd year with the Catholic Newman Community. The support and dedication of individuals like you have made it possible for us to accomplish incredible things.

In this year's report, you will witness the profound impact we have had on the lives of our students and the wider community. Week after week, we have welcomed over 300 students who have found solace and inspiration at our Sunday masses, social programming, spiritual growth opportunities, and service initiatives. Through our 100 programs, we have fostered a warm and nurturing environment where students can find a sense of belonging and strengthen their Catholic faith.

The numbers speak volumes of our collective efforts. We have recorded an astonishing 288 hours of tutoring and mentoring services, highlighting our commitment to service and academic success for young minds and hearts at the Boys and Girls Club of Rochester. Sunday Masses, attended by over 400 unique individuals, have been a source of spiritual nourishment and communion. The return of our signature retreat program Kairos (XLII) was an experience of transformation for almost 40 students. Additionally, we are proud to have witnessed the full initiation of three students into the Church, celebrated the reflections of eight seniors, and welcomed 39 new members into the St. Sebastian Society for Varsity and Club athletes and NROTC members. The three Taizé Prayer meditations and over 900 meals served at Newman Nite have further enriched our community. And let's not forget the joyous karaoke night that brought us all together in song, some good and some not so good 😊.

While we have achieved so much, we also acknowledge the challenges that lie ahead. Like any organization, we face rising costs in these times of high inflation. Balancing the financial demands of providing competitive salaries and health insurance for our staff while meeting the growing ministerial needs of our students has been a daunting task. However, we remain resolute in our commitment to overcome these obstacles and continue our important work.

As we bid farewell to this year, and already look forward to welcoming the Class of 2027, I want to express my deepest appreciation to each and every one of you. Your unwavering support, whether through your presence, prayers, or financial contributions, has been instrumental in creating an environment where students can thrive spiritually, intellectually, and emotionally. Together, we have made a lasting impact on the lives of countless individuals.

With faith in Christ Jesus, and with confidence in your continued support, we will continue to make a difference in the lives of our students and inspire them to live out their Catholic faith with passion, vigor and purpose. There is so much more being planned for the coming year!

May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and commitment. Thank you for being an essential part of the Catholic Newman Community at the University of Rochester.

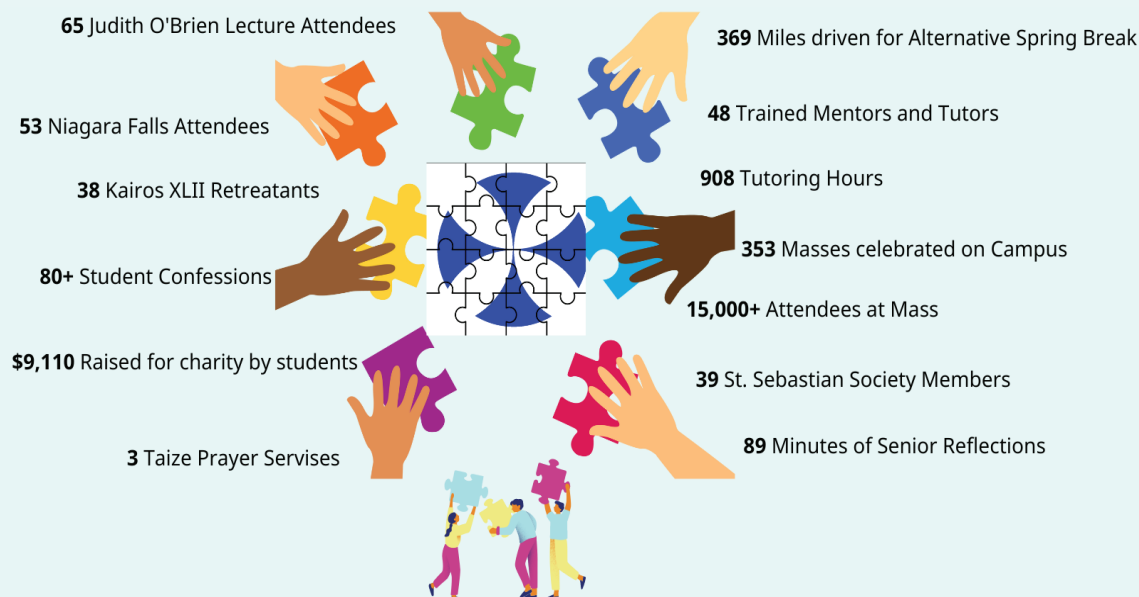

Yours in faith,

Rev. Brian C. Cool, '06W (MS), '21W (EdD)

Director of Catholic Newman Community Pastoral Care*

P.S. Progress does continue on the new Catholic Chapel and Center as we work to close the Design Phase and begin creating the Construction Documents. We are designing the liturgical spaces with world renown local woodworker John Dodd as we seek University approvals. Look for our email updates!

Newman by the Numbers

KAIROS 42 — Be Still and Know I AM God

Earlier this year, Newman presented the Kairos 42 Retreat, a rejuvenated event that took place February 10-12, marking the revival of this cherished tradition, post the pandemic. This year's retreat held special significance by being the first to unite students from both the University of Rochester and Rochester Institute of Technology, fostering a sense of unity and shared spiritual growth. Guided by the theme "Be STILL and KNOW I AM God," participants embarked on a transformative journey, exploring the concept of Kairos, God's time, and its significance in their lives.

2023 Judith Johnson O'Brien Endowed Lecture

On Wednesday, April 12th, the 2023 Judith O'Brien Endowed Lecture, "The Eucharist in Dorothy Day's Incarnational Theology," was given by Jack Downey, PhD., the John Henry Newman Professor of Roman Catholic Studies at the University of Rochester. This incredible event took place at the Interfaith Chapel's sanctuary with over 30 attendees and an additional 45 alumni and parents joining online. The lecture is a part of the annual lecture series on women in the Church sponsored through an endowment by University of Rochester President Emeritus Dennis and his wife Judith O'Brien.

Email catholicnewmancommunity@rochester.edu for a copy of his lecture or visit Newman's YOUTUBE page to view a recording of the lecture.

Senior Reflections 2023

For over 20 years, our Newman students have shared their faith journey with others during the Lenten season. Here are some inspiring words from the Class of 2023! (Full reflections can be found on our YouTube page)

Diana Alcedo

Major: Biomedical Engineering
Hometown: San Juan, Puerto Rico

"Attending mass taught me that true faith extends beyond language and rituals. It is about finding a supportive community, embracing values, and allowing God to open our eyes, providing us with wisdom and understanding."

Newman Community challenged and supported me, helping me to integrate my faith into everyday life and inspiring me to impact others around me. Don't be afraid to embrace opportunities and allow your faith to change your life and the lives of others."

Bart Skala

Major: Economics & International Relations
Hometown: Ontario, Canada

"Be present and live in the moment, for in reflective despair lies the beginning, not the end. Trust in God's plan for you and find contentment in realizing His sheer force. Turn to God and ask for His guidance in finding your purpose. Let go of fear and regret and allow God to shape your future according to His perfect will."

Humphrey Kimanya

Major: Mechanical Engineering
Hometown: Arusha, Tanzania

"Attending mass offers solace and guidance, creating a sacred space for reflection amidst the chaos of college life. Trust in God, have faith, embrace challenges as growth opportunities, and know that with determination, hard work, and unwavering belief, you can navigate this journey."

Ryan Cacace

Major: Political Science
Hometown: East Syracuse, New York

"Faith is not about having all the answers". Don't stress about every little thing; just do your best and trust that God will guide you to where you're meant to be, at the right time."

Miguel Yakouma

Major: Biomedical Engineering
Hometown: Bangui, Central African Republic

"As I keep journeying through life, I realize that maintaining a strong relationship with God requires effort and habits that draw us closer to Him. I am grateful for the Newman community, whose love and care deepened my relationship with God, and gave me an opportunity to serve and belong."

Caitlin Fitzpatrick

Major: Brain and Cognitive Sciences, Music Cognition
Hometown: Glenside, Pennsylvania

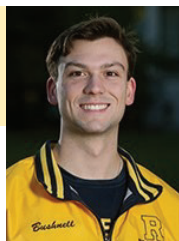

"As a tour guide, I walk and talk, sharing stories and treasures of our university. Similarly, life and faith are intertwined journeys, where we navigate through highs and lows; life as the journey we walk in and faith as the compass that guides us. Jesus, our eternal companion, is the ultimate tour guide accompanying us in every step. He invites us to converse with Him, find solace, meaning, and a deeper sense of purpose."

Christopher Bushnell

Major: Microbiology
Hometown: Manlius, New York

"I've learned that struggles with faith are a natural part of the journey towards a stronger relationship with God. The

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF DEDICATION: Fr. Jim Lawlor, an Exemplary Catholic Priest

Fr. Jim Lawlor, a remarkable figure in the Catholic community, is being honored for his six decades of unwavering commitment as a priest. In the words of Fr. Brian Cool, "Fr. Jim is a priest who must be emulated. He is kind, generous with words of encouragement and support. He understands and loves people, and his ministry at the Catholic Newman Community has truly established a Home Away from Home for every student."

In 1968, Fr. Lawlor became the Catholic chaplain at the University of Rochester, where he dedicated himself to guiding and supporting the students in their faith journeys until 1974. He now serves as an Assisting Priest (in residence) at Saint Anne Church, 1600 Mt. Hope Avenue, Rochester, New York, 14620.
